

Building for the Future

This facility participates in the Child Care Food Program (CCFP), a Federal program that provides healthy meals and snacks to children in child care settings. Each day more than 4.2 million children across the country participate in the CCFP. Providers are reimbursed for serving nutritious meals that meet USDA requirements. The program plays a vital role in improving the quality of child care and making it more affordable for low-income families.

Meals

CCFP facilities follow meal requirements established by USDA.

Breakfast	Lunch or Supper	Snacks (Two of the five)
Milk Fruit or vegetable Grain	Milk Meat or meat alternate Vegetable Fruit Grain	Milk Meat or meat alternate Vegetable Fruit Grain

Participating Facilities

Many different facilities operate the CCFP and share the common goal of bringing nutritious meals and snacks to participants. Participating facilities include:

- Child Care Centers: Licensed or approved public or private nonprofit child care centers, Head Start programs, and certain for-profit centers
- Family Day Care Homes: Licensed private homes
- Afterschool Programs: Sites that provide educational or enrichment programming and are located in low-income areas
- Homeless Shelters: Emergency shelters that provide temporary shelter to homeless children

Eligibility

State agencies reimburse facilities that offer non-residential child care to the following children:

- children age 12 and under,
- migrant children age 15 and younger, and
- children through age 18 in eligible afterschool programs and homeless shelters.

Civil Rights

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English. To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

- (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
